

Events

Evaluating The BEPS Initiative: Who Wins, Who Loses, and What Matters Most

FEBRUARY 23, 2016
12:00PM

The American Action Forum will host an event entitled Evaluating The BEPS Initiative: Who Wins, Who Loses, and What Matters Most on February 23 at 12 p.m. The event will examine the recent Base Erosion and Profit Shifting initiative by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), the extent to which countries will implement BEPS-related policies, and the implications these policies will have on U.S. interests.

Keynote Speaker:

Chairman Charles Boustany, Ways & Means Committee's Tax Policy Subcommittee

Panel:

Dorothy Coleman, Vice President, Tax and Domestic Economic Policy, National Association of Manufacturers

Peter Merrill, Principal, PwC

Thomas Neubig, Deputy Head, Tax Policy and Statistics, Center for Tax Policy and Administration

Martin Sullivan, Chief Economist, Tax Analysts

Moderator:

Richard Rubin, Reporter, Wall Street Journal

Tuesday February 23 at noon

American Action Forum Offices

1747 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, 5th Floor

Chick-Fil-A will be provided.