Dodd-Frank Has Imposed Regulatory Costs of $310 Per Household

JULY 20, 2016

Ahead of the 6th anniversary of the Dodd-Frank Act, the American Action Forum (@AAF) today released an analysis of the law. The analysis finds that so far the law has imposed more than $36 billion in regulatory costs and 73 million hours of paperwork compliance, from final rules. The AAF analysis also finds that the law has imposed regulatory costs of approximately $112 per person, or $310 per household. There are still at least 61 rulemakings outstanding before the Dodd-Frank Act is fully implemented.
